Lawrence Holmes's many years of voluntary work in the upkeep of the restored Veryan ROC Post has been recognised with a Certificate for being nominated for the Cornwall National Trust. 'My Volunteer' Awards 2016. He just lost out in winning the award but the National Trust state that it is an honour to be even nominated.

The award ceremony was held in November 2016 and the award was presented by the Lord Lieutenant of Cornwall Colonel Edward Bolitho OBE who is the Joint President of 10 Group ROCA. Interestingly his family own Madron ROC Post near Penzance”

Veryan ROC Post and that at the Lizard in Cornwall, are owned by the National Trust. Lawrence is attempting to list other ROC Posts/bunkers owned by the National Trust in the UK. This is so an overall approach can be made within the Trust to preserve and promote such structures and sites in the future. If any ROCA members know of an ROC Post owned by the National Trust in other parts of the UK please let him know via the ROCA web site”.
