Forgotten Force: Art & Memory

Forgotten Force is an oral history project by the Pilsudski Institute of London giving first-hand accounts of Polish women survivors of the Second World War who have been residing in the UK for the past seventy years.

These stories have been brought to life by artist and art conservator, Zofia Wyszomirska-Noga, who interpreted the assembled tales and translated them to image.

Dates for your Diary:

- Saturday 8 July: Dowding System Day. Launch of the new Temporary Exhibition
- Saturday 16 September: Battle of Britain Commemorative Day
- Saturdays 30 September & 7 October: Bentley Priory Chronicles Concert
